ENTERTAINMENT CALENDAR

2017-2018 SEASON

Aug. 29 (Tues.) at 7pm

rePercussion

An extraordinary comedy drumming experience! Blurring the lines between electronic music, drum line, rock, and slapstick, rePercussion uniquely combines drumming, comedy, and crowd interaction.

Sept. 9 (Sat.) at 7pm

Chicago Blues Night

Starring Jimmy King and Aunt Kizzy's Boyz. Just arriving off their tour in Australia, Jimmy King will be serving up a host of Rhythm and Blues favorites. His original songs have set an industry standard everywhere he has performed with these professional recording artists that tour with Jimmy.

Sept. 16 (Sat.) at 7pm

Mexican Independence Day Event

Sept. 23 (Sat.) at 7pm & Sept. 24 (Sun.) at 2pm

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

The Biblical saga of Joseph and his coat of many colors comes to life in this delightful musical parable. Set to a cornucopia of musical styles, from country-western and calypso to pop and rock 'n' roll. A rollicking family musical! Music by Andrew Lloyd Weber, lyrics by Tim Rice.

Oct. 13 & 14 (Fri. & Sat.) at 7pm
Oct. 15 & Nov. 5 (Sun.) at 2pm
Oct. 19, 20 & 21 (Thur. - Sat.) at 7pm

Anne of Green Gables

Presented by the Barstow Community College Theatre Arts Department and Callboard Club

Nov. 5 (Sat.) at 7pm

Richard Bishop

Concert Pianist

Internationally acclaimed classical pianist Richard Bishop is a musical prodigy who grew up in Fullerton and began his musical career playing piano and singing in church and school choirs. Richard studied at the University of Southern California and at California State University Fullerton before going on to earn his master's degree from the Juilliard School of Music in New York City.

Nov. 18 (Sat.) at 7pm

Steam Powered Giraffe

More than a band. More than a show. Step into the world of Steam Powered Giraffe - a musical project from San Diego. It was formed in 2008 along with a cast and crew, the group takes on the guise of singing antique automations and the fictional robotics company that made them. The quirky act combines comedic sketches, improvised android banter, and original music fused with multimedia visuals, billowing steam effects, and robot pantomime.

Dec. 1 (Fri.) at 7pm & Dec. 2 (Sat.) at 7pm

A Christmas Carol

The Classic tale of a miser's redemption. Ebenezer Scrooge is a nasty, mean old geezer with no care for anything other than his money. His one and only friend visits him as a ghost, and starts him on a journey that melts his icy heart and teaches him the joys of caring for, and giving to others. Presented by the Traveling Lantern Theater Co from Portland, Oregon.

Jan. 13, 2018 (Sat.) at 7pm

Selenamos!

A Tejana Queen Selena Tribute Band

Direct from Las Vegas, Deborah Galan, Selena Impersonator, performs Como La Flor and Bidi Bidi Bom Bom, Si Una Vez, Techno Cumbia, I will Survive, Dreaming of You and I Could Fall in Love. Her striking resemblance and similar style of vocals and dance will create a lasting impression.

Feb. 3, 2018 (Sat.) at 7pm

Comedy Club Show

With Patrick Hanifin and John Hill

A comedy veteran of 25 years, Patrick Hanifin blends an arsenal of comedy coupled with hysterical and original material. John Hill has been doing standup comedy since 2010 and has developed a large following from the Southern California area. Two other comics will be on hand to round out a wonderful evening of laughs and squeaky clean comedy!

Mar. 10, 2018 (Sat.) at 7pm

Magician Naathan Phan

Naathan has been a finalist on America's Got Talent, fooled Penn & Teller, and entertained eager crowds at the Magic Castle in Hollywood and at Disneyland.
