
Barstow Community College
Student Life and The Associated Student Government

Mission

The goal and mission of the ASG Organization is to ensure:

- All students continue to serve on shared governance committees
- Have the opportunity to access leadership workshops on campus
- Transfer to a four year university, and gain the skills necessary for their desired degree or certificate.

Vision

- Student Life and Development supports the Mission and Vision of Barstow Community College, by providing pathways for students to participate in leadership positions.
- Students are able to develop and achieve their educational goals through community, campus, and course offerings in an institution of higher learning.

Goal

- Build a diverse and committed campus culture that promotes engagement among students, staff, faculty and the college community.
