Message

Per your request, we have exercised professional judgment regarding your 2014 income based on your current financial situation. We have reduced your Expected Family Contribution (EFC), thus increasing your financial aid eligibility. However, you still need to review and accept the Financial Aid Conditions prior to processing your financial aid.

Your request for a Professional Judgement was approved. However, it was not enough of a reduction to qualify you to receive a BOG fee waiver which has covered your enrollment fees.
